

Tuesday 4th December

DAY 1: Live Operating and Interactive Discussion

0800 Taxis from Hotel to Lecture Theatre
0830 Coffee and Registration

0900 Welcome

0915 – 16.00 Live Operating from Coimbatore and Exeter
Interactive debate and discussion

THORACOSCOPIC OESOPHAGECTOMY

Palanivelu Technique of Thoracoscopic Oesophagectomy
Live-link from GEM Hospital, Coimbatore, India
Professor C. Palanivelu and Team

MINIMALLY INVASIVE OESOPHAGECTOMY

Exeter Technique (Modified Luketich MIE)

Live-link from Exeter

Mr. Richard Berrisford and Mr. Saj Wajed

Moderators from invited faculty.

Morning Coffee, Buffet Lunch and Afternoon Tea served during the day

16.00 – 16.30 Closing Remarks and Discussion

16.30 Taxis to Hotels

18.30 Coach from Hotels to Powderham Castle

19.00 Tour of Powderham Castle and Mulled wine

19.30 Course Dinner, State Dining Room, Powderham Castle (Black Tie)

22.15 Coach to Hotels

Wednesday 5th December

DAY 2: Lectures and Interactive Debate

0830 Taxis from Hotel to Lecture Theatre

Session I: 0900 – 1030 The Operation

Minimally invasive resection the literature Toni Lerut Challenges and Technical Difficulties in Developing MIO Tom Dehn
Minimally invasive Ivor Lewis oesophagectomy James Luketich

Coffee

Session II: 1100 – 1300 The Gastric Conduit

Gastric Conduit Vascularity -
A review of the literature Mike Griffin
Gastric Conduit Morbidity Saj Wajed
Kocher's manoeuvre: Surgical
Optimisation of the Conduit Derek Alderson
Ischaemic Conditioning Arnulf Holscher

Lunch

Session III: 1400 – 1530

Quality of life after MIO
- the literature Jane Blazeby
Outcome and Survival after MIO Richard Berrisford
Quality of Life after MIO Raj Parameswaran
Multicentre MIO Trial E2202 Chris Fernando
Complex Problems
– Case Presentations Faculty

1530 Closing Remarks

Devon Cream Tea

Taxis to City Centre / Airport / Rail Station